

Transferring funds

For maximum flexibility, funds in a number of currencies can be transferred to your account in several ways. Citi International Personal Bank will not levy any charges against funds transfers received into your account, however, please note that Citibank exchange rates will apply to transactions across currencies.

Citibank Global Transfer (CGT) allows you to send funds instantly between your Citibank accounts in 27¹ different countries worldwide, free of charge. Transfers can also be made across currencies without charge. Limits may apply. CGTs can be done via your Relationship Manager, Citibank ATMs, or Citibank Online with an active Citi VISA Debit card.

Another way to transfer money into or out of your Citi International Personal Bank account is through the international funds transfer network, called SWIFT. The SWIFT payment method can be used to transfer funds in all of the currencies listed below and overleaf, charges apply for SWIFT transfers. SWIFT payments can be made via your Relationship Manager and Citibank Online.

Single Euro Payments Area (SEPA) is a payment method designed to make Euro payments to participating countries quickly, safely and without charge. You can use this funds transfer method to transfer Euros to and from bank accounts in 33¹ European Union countries at no cost. SEPA payments can be made via your Relationship Manager.

CHAPS is a payment method which enables you to make same day payments to and from bank accounts in the UK. Charges apply for all CHAPS transfers. CHAPS payments can be made via your Relationship Manager.
