Citi appointed Veronika Špaňárová as Citi Country Officer for Slovakia

SLOVAKIA, BRATISLAVA – Citibank Europe plc appointed Mrs. Veronika Špaňárová as the Citi Country Officer for Slovakia, subject to regulatory approval. In her new role, she will manage Citi's franchise in Slovakia and oversee the further growth of its corporate banking business. Veronika is coming from Citi's office in Prague where she has held a number of key management positions in corporate and retail banking.

"Citi entered the Slovak market 20 years ago and since then it has built a strong position in the corporate banking segment," said Veronika Špaňárová, and added: "I am eager to work with the Slovak team and our clients, for whom we want to continue to be a reliable partner, supporting them in developing their business and achieving their strategic objectives."

"Veronika is a seasoned manager and we highly appreciate her many contributions to Citi over the last 15 years. I truly believe that building on her skills and broad range of experience, Veronika will be very successful in her new role," said Michal Nebeský, Cluster Head for the Czech Republic and Slovakia.

Veronika Špaňárová started her career with Citi in 2001, having gained a vast managerial experience both in the Czech Republic and abroad. Veronika first worked in the corporate banking business in Prague, then she joined Citi's corporate banking team in Sao Paulo, Brazil, where she spent five years together with her family. In 2010 Veronika relocated to Citi Czech Republic in Prague to take over the leadership of the team providing best-in-class personal banking products to the employees of Citi's corporate clients. In 2012 she became the Retail Bank Head of Citi in the Czech Republic.

Veronika is a graduate of the Charles University in Prague, majoring in Economics. She is married and has 3 children.
